SUGAR RAY ROBINSON

They Do Come Back!

Sugar Ray Sobs Heart Out After Licking Olson, Experts

When Olson tried to slug it out with Robinson, Sugar Ray unleashed a blazing series of combinations and with a terrific right uppercut knocked Olson flat on his back for a 10 count.

Thus the 35-year-old Robinson disproved the theory that they never come back by winning the 160-pound title for the third time.

Olson, a 3-1 favorite, was paralyzed as much by Robinson's blockbusting knockout punch as he was when light heavyweight champion Archie Moore knocked him out in the third round of a bout last summer.

Sugar Ray Robinson, again the middleweight king, was led into his dressing room after his smashing knockout over Bobo Olson Friday night with tears streaming down his face. He couldn't speak. One veteran ringman said:

"He looks more like after he exhausted himself against Joey Maxim than like a guy who just won the title."

Big George Gahford, who always has been closest to Robinson since his start in the ring, finally gathered the Harlem dandy to him like a mother hen and elbowed through the mob of reporters to a table. There, Robinson sat down facing the audience.

He didn't speak for nearly five minutes as Gahford and others hid him from view, wiping his face, patting his back and getting him off the emotional jag.

Then the new 160-pound king spoke quietly over a public address microphone.

"I had to cry," he said. "I just couldn't believe it was all over. This comeback has been a ghost of a thing with me ever since Tiger Jones licked me here in Chicago Stadium nearly a year ago."

"You never think you have a champion licked until it is all over. I didn't think I had beaten him until he was counted out. ..."

"I'm not sure what punch did the damage. I hit him once and he was wobbly and I kept hitting him—and down he went."

A stunned, bewildered Bobo Olson sat in his dressing room Friday night after he had lost his middleweight title to Ray Robinson by a second round knockout.

"So fast, so fast," muttered Olson. "It was his fast combinations and I got careless. It was too fast. I don't know, maybe the ref counted too fast. Did he?"

"Did I try to get up?" he asked. Someone assured Bobo he made a try at the count of eight and then rolled over.

"I did?" asked the unbelieving Olson. Then in a reply to his own question, he said:

"I don't know."

Olson's manager, Sid Flaherty stepped in.

"Gentlemen, family troubles are not conducive to fighting. You got to feel like fighting to fight a good fight."

Flaherty was referring to Olson's marital difficulties. He added: "We want to straighten out his family troubles before we think about fighting again."

Bobo, however, was of different opinion. "I'll fight him again," vowed the man who had just lost to Robinson for a third straight time.

"He was much faster than I expected. Those combinations stunned me, they were so fast, and I got careless. The first round went just like I wanted it to. He didn't hurt me at all then. But that second round ..."

Denounced as Scandal

Many Policemen Totally Untrained; Vancouver Commissioner 'Appalled'

Murdered Man Might Have Lived

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Brig. W. C. Murphy, recently appointed to the three-man Vancouver police commission, levelled a blistering attack yesterday at the lack of training for city police officers.

The scathing denunciation, in which Murphy termed lack of training a "scandal," came in the wake of the murder Wednesday night of Constable Gordon Sinclair. The brigadier told a police commission meeting Friday that Sinclair was one of a number of men on the force who had not received "one single day" of training. If Sinclair had been trained, he said, he might still be alive.

Murphy, who was appointed only recently to fill a vacancy on the commission, said he was "shocked and appalled" at the limited amount of training available for Vancouver policemen. "IT IS AMAZING"

"It is amazing that the force has done the job it has," he said. Only $500 was spent on training this year, Murphy said. There were no quarters for the work, there is little equipment and few instructors, he said. Only four per cent of the 750-man force has had advanced training for senior jobs, and 24 per cent of the uniformed men have had no training at all.

The brigadier attached no blame to other members of the commission. He observed that none has had long army experience similar to his.

"We must find the money for training," he said. "The city council will be asked for more than $500 next year."

The commission also decided to ask the city council to post a $5,000 reward for information leading to the conviction of the killer of Sinclair, who was shot as he investigated a report of prowlers. This would be in addition to a reward of $1,000 already offered personally by Mayor Fred Hume.

OFFERED POST

In other developments, RCMP Superintendent George J. Archer said he had been offered the post of temporary chief of the Vancouver force and would accept if his superiors in Ottawa approve.

Mayor Hume said he had been negotiating for Archer's release with Defence Minister Ralph Campney.

Labor Eyes Voters

NEW YORK (UP)—George Meany, president of the new 16,000,000-member AFL-CIO, said Friday that if labor cannot make its voice heard through the two major parties it will be forced to create "a third political party."

Meany told the National Association of Manufacturers that what labor wanted most was "understanding."

Indian Raps Change

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CP)—The character of Indian children is being destroyed by "white" boarding schools in northern Saskatchewan, says Cree chief Simon Linklater of Pelican Narrows.

En route to an Ottawa conference of Indian chiefs and Indian affairs officials, he said "ways of Indian people who first lived in the North are being changed by the boarding schools provided by federal and provincial governments."

"In the schools to which the Indian fathers and mothers send their children the whites have all the say and we have none," he said in an interview.

"Indian children should be taught more than is in the text books. They should learn about conservation, fishing and the other things needed in the Indian way of life."

Roosevelt Criticized By Democrat

WASHINGTON (UP)—Rep. James Roosevelt, son of the late President Roosevelt, was criticized by another Democrat today for allegedly speaking out in favor of eventual admission of Red China to the United Nations.

Rep. Michael A. Feighan (D-O.) put out a statement declaring: "I want it distinctly understood that Congressman Roosevelt does not speak for the Democratic party, but only for himself."

Annacis Claim Settled

VANCOUVER (CP)—A two-year court battle ended here Thursday when $50,000 was accepted for the 45-acre Annacis Island farm of Mrs. Hilda Falk, 87.

Gilbert J. Hardman of Eagle Harbor obtained an option on the farm 2½ years ago.

He was acting as representative of the estate of the Duke of Westminster which is developing Annacis island as an industrial estate.

Mrs. Falk's two daughters contended their mother was not mentally competent to give the option and claimed the property was worth much more.

The Court of Appeal upheld a B.C. Supreme Court decision that $50,000 was more than fair and the solicitor for the Falk family abandoned plans to go to the Supreme Court of Canada, for himself.

Expansion Seen

New City Air Link May Span Nation

Pacific Western Airways' triangle service between Victoria and Vancouver, by way of Nanaimo, will probably be the first link of a new transcontinental chain.

"That's our hope," Russell Baker, president of the company, told The Daily Colonist last night.

Base of the new operation probably will be at Patricia Bay airport.

"We recently signed up with the provincial government to take over a hangar at Patricia Bay," said Mr. Baker.

He explained his company for many years has been doing B.C. government work, forest patrols, and map-making.

"Now we will be in a position to service government planes. We are going to have a large staff at Patricia Bay."

"We shall have to build adequate waiting rooms and other facilities."

NEW AIRCRAFT

Last night Mr. Baker was negotiating for two new DC-3 aircraft to shuttle on the Victoria-Vancouver route seven days a week.

Son Pleads Insanity In Plane-Bomb Case

DENVER (UP)—John Gilbert Graham, 23, pleaded innocent by reason of insanity Friday to the charge that he murdered his mother by time-bombing the airliner in which 44 persons were killed.

District Judge Edward J. Keating murmur.

ordered the young defendant to the Colorado Psychopathic hospital in King, died when the United Air Denver for 30 days' observation and Lines plane exploded and crashed continued the case until Jan. 9, near Longmont, Colo. Nov. 1, when he will hear the hospital report. Keating said he expected to set a date for the sanity trial after the Jan. 9 report.

Graham will stand trial for murder if the sanity trial discloses he from Denver for Portland, Ore.

Shortage Worsens

"No eggs today" signs greeted housewives at many groceries in the area again yesterday as one of the worst egg shortages in the last 25 years cut supplies. Feed firm officials and wholesalers blamed the shortage on two things—the November cold spell during which the hens froze up on their duties, and the fact that more hens were sold for brooding, thus cutting the laying stock.

Municipal Elections

Saanich, Esquimalt, Oak Bay Make Their Decisions Today

More than 28,500 voters are choose a reeve from three candidates to cast ballots between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. today in Ash and George Clayton. They will choose three council members in Esquimalt, and in clitors for two-year terms from the rural municipality of Central Saanich.

Saanich voters, alone, have a good chance of outdoing their Victoria counterparts. In Thursday's city elections, 9,075 ballots were cast. A 30 per cent turnout of Saanich's 18,573 registered voters would exceed that number.

The Saanich voters will be registered, three councillors will be chosen from a list of six: J. V. Johnson, George Murdoch, Fred W. Hawes, F. A. Robinson, Albert de Mezey and Kenneth Oliver.

W. C. Gelling and Kenneth Grant, Stanley Eden, T. J. O'Neill, David Wright, J. Pat Conroy, C. H. MacMillan, James Ronald Grant, and Thomas Alexander.

The Saanich voters will also elect one councillor for a one-year term. Candidates are Ainslie Worthington, R. W. Dawson and Harold Todd.

Stanley Eden, Lionel Speller and W. T. Lightfoot are seeking the single vacant police commission seat.

Ratepayers will also vote on a $220,000 waterworks by-law for installing additional pipes. Saanich voters may vote at whichever of 13 polling stations is most convenient (but they have been warned of the heavy penalty for voting or attempting to vote at more than one).

The stations are at Cedar Hill school, Lansdowne Junior High school, Tolmie school, Cloverdale school, Gordon Head school, Cadboro Bay Scout hall, Mari gold Scout hall, 3890 Douglas, Royal Oak High school, McMor-sa's pavilion, Prospect Lake school, Tillicum school and St. Martin's-in-the-Fields hall.

In Oak Bay, where 8,812 voters are registered, three councillors will be chosen from a list of six: George F. Argyle, Charles Arthur Fields, Walter Holder, Frederick Vincent Rush, Alexander Speirs and William Walker.

Central Saanich ratepayers also go to the polls today to elect two councillors.

ALL ABOARD

With G. E. Mortimore

RICHARD Aldington, who called Lawrence of Arabia a liar, has now been exposed as a liar himself.

T. E. Lawrence was the mystery man who set the desert aflame with revolt in 1914-18. His swift Arab raiders harassed the Turks and sapped British strength to the breaking-point. Lawrence did giant service to the Allied cause. He helped win the war. Then he returned to England and deliberately plunged into obscurity.

But the Lawrence story captured the imagination of the world. When Lawrence's life was cut short by a motorcycle accident, the man had won a place among the warrior heroes of history.

So it was until Richard Aldington lately appeared on the scene with a book that shredded Lawrence's reputation into confetti and denounced the hero as a poser, charlatan and fraud.

Aldington's book was a masterpiece of character assassination, fashioned by a skilled debunker.

Now, however, Captain B. H. Liddell Hart, Britain's foremost writer on military affairs, has come to Lawrence's defence.

In an article written for the Atlantic Monthly, Hart turns a searchlight on Aldington's case against Lawrence, and shows it up as a flimsy structure of half-truths and deceit.

Aldington says that the Arab revolt was of little use in defeating the Turks. He fails to mention that Allenby and the British official history described its effect as "invaluable."

"When Allenby launched his decisive attack in 1918," Hart writes, "nearly half of the Turkish troops in the operational zone were pinned down in the Arab sector east of the Jordan—close on 50,000 Turks being there engaged... by an Arab force of barely 3,000 men, while little more than 50,000 Turks were left to meet the assault by Allenby's army of 250,000 troops."

"Moreover, a further 150,000 Turkish troops... were spread over the rest of the region in a futile effort to stem the tide of the Arab revolt."

Aldington said the story that the Turks put a price on Lawrence's head was false. But he ignored the testimony of Col. Stewart Francis Newcombe, who learned from Ismet Bey, then ADC to Kemal Pasha of Turkey, that Lawrence indeed had a price on his head. And who should know better than a high Turkish officer?

Aldington claimed that Lawrence put an entry in "Who's Who" which contained false information. In contradiction of this, the publishers of "Who's Who" state that they compiled the entry themselves; that Lawrence asked them to take it out; and that they told Aldington's publishers of this, without effect.

"Aldington frequently quotes criticisms of Lawrence by Sir Hubert Young, from a professional soldier's point of view," Hart says, "but abstains from mentioning that Young, nevertheless, termed him a 'military genius.'"

Carefully documenting each statement, Hart shows how Aldington withheld and distorted evidence, and twisted Lawrence's own words to make it appear that Lawrence was making false claims.

The errors, distortions, and false assumptions are so continuous and cumulative that to tackle Aldington's book is like wrestling with an all-pervasive smog."

Garden Notes

Chili Pepper Ornamental

By M. V. CHESNUT, FRHS

In yesterday's column I described the small red chili pepper as an attractive and easy-to-grow houseplant which makes a compact little bush covered with tiny scarlet peppers, hotter than Billy-beg-damned to the taste, but most ornamental. I offered to share my supply of seeds with any of my gardening friends who would like to try them out, upon receipt of a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

In telling you how to start these seeds, I am going to presume that you are just an ordinary gardener, like me, with no greenhouse or heated frame or any other special facilities for starting seeds.

NEED DIRT

First of all, you'll need some dirt to sow them in, and for this, you can use any good garden soil, preferably from a well-worked vegetable patch which has been manured regularly. It should be sifted through a sieve to get rid of lumps and stones, and mixed thoroughly with coarse sand. Or, if you live in an apartment and can't get any garden dirt, you can buy a pillow bag of ready-mixed potting soil at the corner store.

You'll need an earthen flower pot, of course, and the size doesn't matter very much. The kind you use for African violets would serve admirably. Scrub the pot inside and out before filling it.

Put about an inch of gravel or bits of broken flower pot in the bottom for drainage, then fill to within half an inch of the top and make reasonably firm with the fingers. Then water it slowly with BOILING water right out of the kettle until it starts to drain out the bottom.

THREE TO POT

When the soil has cooled, sow your seeds, putting three to each pot and spacing them in a little triangle an inch apart near the centre of the pot. Push them under the surface with the point of a pencil, and leave them at that.

We sow three to the pot just for insurance, in case some of the seeds are infertile, and if all of them come up, retain the strongest, and cut the other two off at soil level with a pair of manicure scissors. Try to pull them up or transplant them—you'll cause too much disturbance to the roots of the one you retain.

With the seeds sown, take a good-sized square of Saran wrap, cover the top of the pot with it, and smooth it down the sides so that most of the porous surface of the pot is covered as well as the soil surface. This makes a little airtight greenhouse which will retain moisture and speed up the germination of the seeds.

UNDER LAMP

I have described in previous columns how I have persuaded seeds to germinate quickly by sitting the pot on top of the kitchen radio, where the warmth from the tubes provides a little gentle heat from the bottom. Another way, which I believe works even better for me, is to put the pot under my desk lamp, with the Saran-covered soil surface only six inches from the electric light bulb.

The room is on the warm side, and the light is turned on for about five hours daily. Seeds seem to come through with surprising rapidity under this treatment. Don't worry about the moisture which collects under the Saran wrap—it doesn't do any harm.

As soon as the seedlings are through, the wrap is taken off, and after a couple of days exposure to the desk lamp, the baby plant is moved to the warmest and sunniest window in the house and grown on to maturity.

Charge Follows Child's Death

Death of three-year-old Darrel Bell, seen with twin sister, Darlene, has led Toronto police to charge woman who was minding children with manslaughter. Mrs. Margaret Daniels, 35, who had been boarding the children since Sept. 22—while parents searched for a home for twins and their other three children—told police boy had smothered in bed when his sister fell across him while he was asleep. Both children were found to be suffering from malnutrition and broken arms, which had been allowed to mend themselves.—(CPC.)

MELBOURNE, Fla. (UP)

Police found a missing young mother battered to death on the seat of her car Friday and the body of her seven-year-old daughter, also bludgeoned, stuffed in the trunk.

The death car was parked across the street from an undertaker's home.

Officers searched for a motive in the brutal slayings of youthful, red-haired Mrs. Patricia Van Eeghen and her daughter Phyllis.

Mrs. Van Eeghen worked for an insurance company in Cocoa, Fla., and her husband, Philip, and his mother, Mrs. Teddy Van Eeghen, operated a laundry here. Van Eeghen said his wife had gone to a nearby town to make an insurance collection and he was to have met her and the daughter later at a theatre.

He told police his wife and daughter did not show up at the theatre. He said he had a beer with a friend, then went home to bed and fell asleep.

Van Eeghen called officers when he awoke in the morning and found his wife and daughter had not come home.

A patrolman found the bodies in Mr. Van Eeghen's car. The body was doubled over on the right side of the front seat, covered by a blanket.

She was apparently struck from behind for she had fallen on her face into sand. The daughter's body, still clad in clothes she had worn to school, was crammed into the trunk of the automobile.

Cut Fish Fleet Or Kill Run, Senator Warns

VANCOUVER (CP)—The fishing industry was warned Friday by Senator Thomas Reid of New Westminster, B.C., to reduce the size of its Fraser river fleets or risk destruction of the salmon run.

He appealed in a speech for a cutback in fishing operations when he spoke at the annual meeting of the international Pacific salmon fisheries commission. He is commission chairman.

"This is a serious and dangerous problem, and it threatens the very existence of the Fraser river sockeye populations," he said.

He also warned the 200 delegates from B.C. and the U.S. of another danger to B.C.'s annual $50,000,000 salmon industry, the proposed construction of a series of power dams.

Senator Reid called for united action to persuade the federal and provincial governments to block construction of the 10 dams proposed by the B.C. Electric Company.

Industry and the commission must unite, the senator said, to keep the Fraser exclusive for salmon fishing, and to force power interests to find their sources of hydro-power on the Columbia river.

He said there was no guarantee that fishways could be built on the Fraser to protect the salmon runs from the proposed 100-foot dams.

Since the problem of over-fishing was immediate, Senator Reid said, industry must "remedy its own house by designing and supporting whatever local control is necessary."

Officers On Scheme

With usual army attention to detail, all army units, defence associations' services colleges and directorates have received instructions on photo of Defence Minister Campbell to be displayed. Instructions were contained in a letter which Majors A. M. MacLeod, W. G. read in part: "The approved portrait of Beavers, F. D. Nelson, B. W. trait is 'three-quarter face.' That Murdoch, E. A. Stewart, H. C. Is it shows one ear only. Former P. Green and A. E. Smart, official photograph, which will be removed immediately, is 'full-face' regular force to take part in a (showing both ears)." Color Bar Charge Not Yet Answered

OTTAWA (BUP)—The federal citizenship and immigration department is awaiting a report from Canadian officials at The Hague before answering a "color bar" charge against this country.

The issue has blown up in Dutch papers. They splashed accounts of allegations by Mr. and Mrs. Gerard E. Haster that the Canadian government had refused a visa for the Indonesian wife of their son, Johan.

Prince Rainier of Monaco Goes in Search of Bride

By JACK GEE

MONTE CARLO (Reuters)—Prince Rainier III of Monaco, one of the world's most handsome bachelors, is on his way for his first visit to the United States.

His two-month stay across the Atlantic has become almost the sole topic of conversation among his 2,900 subjects. "Will the prince bring back a bride?" is the question they are asking.

The question has a practical as well as a sentimental interest. Under the terms of a treaty signed in 1918, Monaco, perched on a rock jutting out from the French Riviera coastline, will become part of France if the 32-year-old prince dies without an heir.

This would mean that, for the first time since the middle ages, Monacans would have to pay taxes and do military service. They would also lose the privilege of a virtually guaranteed job in the small state's civil service—ranging from croupier at Monte Carlo's casino to traffic policeman.

Prince Rainier, who has 17 titles including two principedoms and two dukedoms, is in no hurry to marry. In a broadcast in October, he told his subjects:

"This question of marriage has political aspects which leave me far from indifferent. But it also has a human side which should not escape anybody's notice."

The prince already has at least two tentative dates with attractive young American girls. One is with a 20-year-old Illinois school girl, Jo Ann Stork, who flew from Chicago to Monte Carlo in January to see him. "I want to meet a real prince charming," she told reporters.

Another visit which the prince may return will be that paid to him recently by Hollywood film star Grace Kelly, who called at the palace while "To Catch a Thief" was being filmed on the French Riviera.

Stamp Series Slated

An unusual series of new stamps, featuring hockey, wildlife, industry and fire prevention in Canada, will be issued by the post office next year.

The hockey stamp will be issued in January. Two stamps illustrating Canadian wild animals will appear in April, followed by others depicting the chemical and pulp and paper industries. The stamp stressing the value of fire prevention will be issued in the fall.

Cub May Still Recover

Life's troubles began early for polar bear cub of Washington zoo. Immediately after his birth, his mother refused to have anything to do with him, but accommodating foster mother was found in a beagle dog. Then cub developed pneumonia and all seemed lost. But in an oxygen tent cub showed immediate signs of recovery, and here he is being fed with an eye dropper. (CPC.)

Australians Vote Today Menzies Party Favored

MELBOURNE (Reuters)—Five million Australians vote today on whether to return Robert Menzies and his Liberal-country party coalition for another three-year term or switch to socialism.

Many parts of the country had summer heat-wave temperatures approaching 100 degrees as voters balledot to choose a new House of Representatives and half the Senate.

The election campaign aroused little excitement. Most experts predicted the Menzies coalition government would be returned.

The big question mark is the Senate where half the 60 members are up for re-election. The government had a majority of two in the old Senate.

Eighteen government and 12 Labor Senate seats are being contested. One Labor party gain would upset the government majority and enable the Opposition to hamper legislation, perhaps force ing a deadlock leading to new elections.

A poll indicated Menzies would retain or boost his majority of seven seats in the House of Representatives. The house will have 121 members, an increase of one, in the new term as a result of boundary changes.

Two non-voting members represent the remote northern territories.

Candidates of the—breakaway anti-Communist Labor party, which had seven members in the outgoing House, are opposing regular Labor candidates in many constituencies.

Their chances of success are considered small by experts, but they could harm Labor candidates in marginal districts. A handful of Communist and Independent candidates are also in the running.

Court Reserves Opinion

Coffin Won't Know His Fate for Weeks

OTTAWA (BUP)—Wilbert Coffin, doomed to hang Feb. 10 for the murder of an American hunter, will not know his fate for several weeks.

The supreme court Friday reserved its opinion in the case, after rejecting an application by the Quebec attorney-general's department to ignore a federal cabinet order-in-council to review the case.

The unique supreme court hearing asked for by the federal cabinet in an unprecedented order-in-council, ended after a five-day sitting.

The words palace and palatial derive from Palatine Hill in Rome, traditional site of the founding of Rome.

Flin Flon Fears Rabies

FLIN FLON, Man. (CP)—The second emergency meeting of town council within 24 hours Friday drafted a by-law which will force all cat owners in the town to have their animals inoculated before Dec. 17. The move was made in an effort to cut off any possible spread of rabies infection from cats or dogs which has already involved a housewife and a six-year-old girl in the area.

A special session of the council Thursday heard a report it was discovered later that the dog was rabid.

Lack of Planning

As a previous resident and property owner in Saanich, I have been following the recent election campaign, with its charge and counter-charge, with great interest.

One of the major reasons for my selling my property in the Saanich district and moving into the city proper was the complete lack of any definite plans with regard to street and sewer development. Taxes have risen to comparable levels with city properties, and yet no major improvement or any prepared plan for same appear to be operating. It was impossible to find out when a sewerage system that is being constructed would be available, even when it was only as little as a block away.

Saanich is physically located to become a residential area of Victoria and it is the opinion of the writer that Mr. Pat Conway hit the nail on the head in the campaign forum the other night when he called for a complete planned development throughout the whole district, each section to be completely developed as work progressed.

It would be very encouraging to all prospective homeowners if, when buying property, they could obtain the estimated dates of improvement in the areas in which they are purchasing and the resultant increase in taxes, if any. It might help to make more people conscious of Saanich as a residential district.

'Horrible Spectre'

Once again this horrible spectre of the proposed Topeka park garbage dump has raised its ugly head. So let us get busy and lop it off and get done with it once and for all.

The proposed location is close to a residential district where the majority of the residents are young people raising young families, and is within a couple of blocks of Quadra primary school. What of the health of all these children? Have they to be jeopardized in health in order to perhaps have a few dollars for the acquisition of a suitable site? If this is necessary, in some remote district away from a residential district and outside the city.

Is the mighty ocean not big enough? Garbage taken out to sea far enough would never clutter up our harbor or beaches. Children are the most valuable asset we have and their worth can not be computed in dollars and cents. This site is meantime used by children as a playground or as a public park of which there are far too few in this city. It lies in a hollow and in heavy rain there is an accumulation of water and if converted as proposed would soon be filled up with a mass of festering, semi-fluid corruption swarming with flies and rats. Promises that this dump would be different from all others can be accepted as so much eyewash.

Victoria prides itself on its beauty and other amenities and appeals to our tourists on these grounds, but what will they think when driving into the city along Douglas street, the main approach, when they see close to the highway, a garbage dump swarming with rats and flies, with scraps of paper and tin cans lying all over the place and giving off a smell which will speak for itself in no uncertain terms.

The innocent looking fly who visits your table and takes a sip from your child's glass of milk before you can swat him, may have spent a busy day on the garbage dump with his many friends and may well prove to be the harbinger of death.

This foolishness can be stopped if the citizens as a whole voice their disapproval in the press and otherwise and attend the public meeting soon to be called and state their views. It is our turn today. It may be yours tomorrow. So let us get busy.

Wait for Results

Mr. Partridge in his letter of Dec. 8 seems to think that socialism has been tried and has been found a failure. Socialism has not yet been fully tried by any country. Russia from all accounts is in process of establishing a socialist state, but it is yet far from complete. It will be very interesting to watch developments.

In an article in The Listener recently Prof. Peter Wiles, lecturer in economics at Oxford University, and member of the English group which attended the Moscow Economic Conference in April, 1952, has this to say:

"Perhaps the most important fact in all modern economics is that the rate of growth of productivity is higher in the Soviet Union than in any important free country at the period of its maximum development, let alone now."

And after giving the figures he goes to give the reasons. "First there is the planning system itself: targets are set in physical or financial terms which each ministry, trust, factory and individual worker must beat." Also, there are no obstacles of property law, shareholders vested interests, etc.: all industry is treated as one big trust. There is still competition, but "Socialist competition is not a fight, but a race and greater production is a direct not accidental or circuitous result."

The scientific approach for us is not to denounce an experiment before it is completed, but to watch final results and be governed accordingly.

Fed by Gasoline,
Defies Firemen

DESTROYED ISLAND—A fire which completely destroyed the B.C. Packers fish salting plant on North Pender Island yesterday was still smouldering last night after causing damage roughly estimated at some $50,000.

Fire broke out about 10 a.m. in the frame structure and defied efforts of Pender Island volunteer firemen to control it. A fire boat and an RCMP boat from Ganges on Salt Spring Island went to the Otter day site of the plant to give assistance.

Some 5,000 gallons stored in five nearby tanks burned in the blaze without exploding. Cause of the fire was not immediately known.

The plant, used to salt herring for export, was not in production this year and only a skeleton maintenance crew was employed.

The fire spread to the dock and several fish boats were moved out of the way of flames.

No one was hurt in the blaze.

Re-examine Milk Service

The provincial cabinet has ordered the milk board to re-examine the adequacy of the present milk distribution service in the Cowichan lake area.

An order-in-council to this effect was passed yesterday after George Kocurek, G.B.H.S. road, Duncan, applied to the cabinet for permission to distribute milk in the area.

The milk board had refused to grant Mr. Kocurek a licence to distribute milk from his own herd in the district.

Cabinet ruled that the matter be referred back to the board which was instructed to re-examine the case, particularly as to the adequacy of the present milk distribution service.

PORT ALBERNI—Funeral services will be held here this afternoon for Joseph L. King.

Island Men Good Ambassadors

Mobbed by happy Korean children as they passed out candy at the recent opening of a new school at Incheon, Korea, were Pte. J. B. Anderson of Ladysmith and Cpl. D. W. Laurie of Nanaimo, who are serving with British Commonwealth forces in Korea. The new school was financed by the school children of British Columbia, making a fine Christmas present for war-torn Incheon.—(DND photo.)

Another Active Sportsman
Elected to Ladysmith Council

LADYSMITH—William Hallinan, alderman-elect by acclamation for a two-year term on Ladysmith city council, is a prominent sportsman and a former soccer player.

Mayor Leonard Ryan and Ald. P. R. Battle, both returned by acclamation for another two-year term, are also former members of Ladysmith city football squads.

Mr. Hallinan was born in Glasgow and came with his family to Merritt, B.C.

He came to Ladysmith in 1923 as a young man and played on the soccer team which won the championship Davenport shield.

Now his interest has turned to the needs of youth.

He was elected this year at a meeting in Vancouver Nov. 12, vice-president of the B.C. Softball Association—the first person to represent Vancouver Island on the association.

Last year he was district supervisor of B.C. Softball Association. This year he is president of the Little League Baseball Association of Ladysmith.

He believes sports are the answer in helping boys through difficult periods, and this will be one platform he will support as an alderman.

This is Mr. Hallinan's first term as a member of city council.

Employed as first aid man for Comox Logging Co., he is also president of Ladysmith Burns Club and was active in bringing the Scottish concert party to Ladysmith the past three years.

Hanson Wins at Courtenay

Civic Official Picks Mayor
By Casting Deciding Ballot

COURTENAY—Returning officer H. K. Bennett cast the deciding ballot yesterday in a close battle for the one-year vacancy on city council, waged by Ald. Perry Hanson and R. V. Coveney.

First count of ballots, completed at about 2 a.m. yesterday, gave Mr. Hanson 374 votes and Mr. Hanson 374.

A recount ordered by the returning officer resulted in a 375-375 tie.

Using powers conferred on him by the Municipal Elections Act, Mr. Bennett, a city employee, cast the deciding ballot for Mr. Hanson.

Courtenay voters elected a new mayor by giving G. A. Brown, a former alderman, a 516-248 margin over Mayor Lester Dobell, who was seeking re-election.

Elected to two-year aldermanic terms were Ald. W. C. Moore, M.L.A., with 512 votes; Bruce McPhee, 352; Ald. Dr. W. B. Gordon, 315.

Unsuccessful candidates were Ben Hughes, 235; Mrs. Myrtle Vickberg, 230; Mrs. Mabel Christie, 167; F. G. Cook, 151; G. R. Merrill, 116.

Results of the store-closing referendum showed a preference for Wednesday over Saturday by a 675-88 margin. A record 61.6 per cent of

Car-Bomb Murder Brings Life Term

WACO, Tex. (UP)—A jury last night found Harry L. Washburn guilty of blowing up his ex-mother-in-law by a bomb attached to the starter of her car. He was sentenced to life in prison.

The trial was televised live, perhaps for the first time in history for a murder trial, and viewers saw Washburn sit side-eyed and tense while the jury went back out after once filing in and reporting it had reached a verdict.

Foreman Jack Woods had forgotten to put the verdict in writing. Judge D. W. Bartlett told the jury to go back out. They went into a hallway. Woods signed the verdict, and they returned.

Washburn was in suspense for perhaps three or four minutes.

HOPES FOR REVERSAL

The verdict came three hours and 32 minutes after deliberations began.

Washburn said he felt sure the verdict will be reversed and "I will be vindicated ultimately."

He said he thought District Attorney Aubrey Stokes of San Antonio should have carried out the prosecution rather than District Attorney Tom Moore of Waco.

Fish Catch Down In October

OTTAWA (CP)—Fishermen caught fewer fish and sold their catch for less money in October than a year earlier. The salmon and herring catch on the Pacific coast dropped sharply.

The bureau of statistics reported Friday that the October catch of $6,919,000 pounds was worth $4,205,000, a 47-per-cent decline in volume and 38 per cent in value from the 192,723,000-pound catch worth $6,779,000 a year earlier.

Landings in the first 10 months of the year were lower by 10 per cent in volume and eight per cent in value from the corresponding period last year. The catch totalled 1,492,091,000 pounds worth $69,533,000 compared with 1,666,404,000 worth $77,795,000.

The bureau said sharp declines in salmon and herring catches on the Pacific Coast in October contributed to a drop in volume to 14,309,000 pounds from 113,314,000 and in value to $1,672,000 from $4,511,000. In the 10-month period, the volume dipped to 301,324,000 pounds from 445,239,000 and the value $25,160,000 from $32,465,000.

Reds Hit Hard In North Laos

VIETNAME, Laos (Reuters)—The royal Laotian government announced Friday that the heaviest fighting since last July broke out this week in northern Laos after an attack by about 2,200 troops of the Communist-led Pathet Lao.

Full reports of the battle in the mountainous jungle area of Sam Neua province in northern Indochina have not yet reached this country, but fighting now is believed to have died down.

In an interview Friday, the acting prime minister of Laos, Prince Souvanna Phouma, said the attack was a flagrant breach of the cease-fire agreement reached between the Laotian government and the Pathet Lao in Rangoon last October and the government had protested to the Canadian-Indian-Polish truce control commission which had representatives on the spot.

STEPHEN DICKINSON

Sailor To Lead Firm in Sidney

New manager of Van Isle Marina at Sidney is Stephen Dickinson, a former Royal Navy lieutenant-commander and deep-sea sailor.

He announced his association with Dick Gile and the Sidney boat firm recently and brings a wide building and boating knowledge to the company.

THREE YEARS AGO

Mr. Dickinson came to Canada from Scotland three years ago. When he left school he served in one of the Finnish deep-sea, square-rig vessels and sailed around the world, making a winter passage around Cape Horn.

From 1936 to 1952, except for war service as a lieutenant-commander in command of minesweepers and escorts with the Royal Navy, he was in charge of the Irish and Scottish districts for the Royal National Lifeboat Institution.

He has recently returned from an advanced training program in repairing Mercury outboard motors at the Kleckhafer Corporation service school. Van Isle Marina has recently obtained the dealership for Mercury outboards and is also a dealer for Chris Craft boats.

Mr. Gile has operated Van Isle Marina for about three years. There is wharfage for 102 boats, boat rentals are available, and there is a repair workshop and marine railway.

Mr. Dickinson, his wife, Esther, and their three school-age children will live at the Marina.

IT BEATS ME

COLOR CONSCIOUS: Nicholas Metropoulos was an immigrant steel worker who toiled and saved so that he could send his son to Harvard. He died in 1953 and missed by two years what would have been the greatest day of his life.

Two weeks ago, lettermen of the Harvard football team met privately, as they do each year. When the meeting was over, team manager Emanuel Hudock, according to tradition, placed a football sweater on coach Lloyd Jordan's desk. It bore the number "88" and it meant that Theodore N. Metropoulos had been elected by his teammates as the 1956 football captain.

The same day, the Yale football team elected Mike Owselchik as its 1956 captain.

It's on days like that when one can believe that the United States is as it likes to claim, the "home of the free" and the "land of opportunity."

Then along comes the sorry mess in Georgia which sees the elected governor of a state try and prevent Georgia Tech from playing in the Sugar Bowl football game because its opponent, the University of Pittsburgh, has a colored player in its lineup. Not only that, but the governor gets solid support from many a "solid" citizen, including educators, in his state. In Georgia, and several other states, it appears as if one of those slogans ought to read "the home of the free white man."

TEX WAS LAX: After the Grey Cup game, Tex Coulter, who was named "linebacker of the year" in Canadian football, complained that he had been harshly treated by many a sports writer who felt that big Tex hadn't lived up to his reputation in the big game.

"They didn't make four yards through my position all afternoon," Coulter claimed.

But game statistician Greg Fulton had a different set of figures. He disclosed that the Eskimos carried the ball six times on Coulter's right and made 39 yards, made 106 yards in eight carries on Coulter's left, and that Coulter made only three tackles in the entire game.

Anyone who saw the game would certainly believe Fulton, as they should in any event. Coulter didn't have a good day but it could be said in his defence that he was trying to do too much and in trying to make up for the shortcomings of some of his teammates only made the Montreal line more porous. And in complaining he left himself open to statistics.

One of the sport stories which gives a smile is the one about a coach in the Western Canada Junior Hockey League who has a contract calling for a $500 bonus if his club makes the league playoffs. After he signed, the league decided that all clubs would participate in the playoffs and he has to worry about now in holding his job until the end of the season. Some idea of what Toronto Maple Leafs lost when Ted Kennedy decided to call it a career can be gleaned from the amazing difference in left-winger Sid Smith, who scored 33 goals last season and started this season with 156 for six NHL seasons. Without Kennedy to feed him this season, Smith didn't score his first goal until Thursday night. It was in the Leafs' 28th game. John "Kiss of Death" Shaw has done it again. He bet on Bobo Olson last night and it was enough to kill for all time the old sports belief that "they never come back." That wasn't just a coincidence. Olson getting knocked out... and while on the subject of last night's fight, it appeared to this TV observer that Olson really got a quick count. Referee Frank Sikora reached "10" about as quickly as anyone could. Money doesn't buy everything after all. Arnold Johnson, owner of the Kansas City Athletics, recently offered Detroit Tigers a certified cheque for $400,000 in exchange for the contract of Al Kaline, 21-year-old American League batting champion. The Tigers were horrified — at the thought of selling Kaline. Not reported Thursday night was the fact that the WHL meeting at Edmonton on Thursday night resulted in a special concession for the Regina and Seattle clubs. The Regals and Americans no longer have to carry four rookies as do other clubs, they need only two. Reason for the action, of course, was the hope that this would help the two clubs win more games so they might attract enough fans to meet expenses. Now the problem for the two is to find a couple of veterans who are better than two of the rookies they have been carrying. At this late date, that could be a bit difficult.

GUESSING DEPARTMENT: Winnipeg, New Westminster, Calgary and Saskatoon in WHL games tonight. Canadian Scottish and Butlers in today's district soccer. Canadians and Toronto in the NHL. Batting average to date: At bat 383, hits 268, percentage .700.

Season's First Bouts Provide Good Action

Greater Victoria Amateur Boxing Association staged its first fight card of the season at Victoria Ballroom, putting on a 15-bout program that sent the 450 fans home well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

All 10 bouts, ranging from the 70-pound class to middleweight, were well-matched, and there wasn't a bad one in the lot. There were no knockouts, but the crowd saw just about everything else they could look for in the way of boxing. The older and bigger fighters provided a good display of the more polished brand of boxing, while the youngsters more than made up for their lack of experience with a willingness to get in and mix.

The first three bouts of the evening were in the 70-pound and under class. All went to decisions and all were free-swinging affairs that had the crowd applauding both fighters at the finish. Time and again one of the youngsters would be pushed back by a flurry of punches, but it would be a case of head down, fists up, and back into the fray.

From there on, the more experienced fighters took over. Brian O'Hare, who won a close decision over Jackie Ahleman in the Tournament of Champions last May, breezed to another win over the Seattle boy and Chemainus Skimp Williams put on a last-round flurry to edge Rick Beving on an unpopular split decision.

The last three bouts on the card proved to be the best. Francis Connolly of the Fire Department took Seattle's Jack Knisley via the TKO route after a pair of knockdowns in the second round of their scheduled three-rounder.

Seattle's Wilbur Young, Tacoma Golden Glove welterweight champion sent Victoria veteran Bert Wilkison down to defeat in the final bout of the night, starting fast and finishing faster for a fairly easy victory.

The heavily muscled Young rocked Wilkison several times and had the Victorian's nose bleeding in the third round.

The match is one of nine games pitting non-league teams against English league Third Division and other organized clubs in the race to be among the 40 who hope to rub shoulders with the giants of the game in Monday's third-round draw. First and Second Division clubs get a bye until the third round.

Peterborough, boasting a top coaching staff and a 22-game winning streak, is given a good chance of topping its third division opponent.

The Cup Final is to Britain what the Grey Cup is to Canada. Each year hundreds of

Big Opportunity Missed

Things look kind of bad here for Gay Young, left, but the youngster from the Colwood Boxing Club didn't get hurt as badly as clubmate Ronnie Gardiner obviously intended. Ronnie, who saw his chance and meant to make the most of it, must have missed as Gay wound up as a decision winner. Bout was second on Greater Victoria Boxing Association card at Victoria Ballroom. Both youngsters weighed in at 68 pounds.

Bruins Tie Hawks To Extend Streak

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Sixteen penalties were assessed here Friday night as Chicago Black Hawks and Boston Bruins battled to a 1-1 tie in a National Hockey League game. Both scores came in the first period. Johnny Wilson notched his 12th of the season for Chicago, acting as host team in this neutral city, and defenceman Lionel

CARL VOYLES... resigns as coach

Speaking Briefly

Voyles Quits Ti-Cats; Dodgers Trade Meyer

Carl Voyles, who coached Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Big Four to one Grey Cup title and a top position in Canadian football, retired Friday after 30 years in the game. "It is with deep regret that I leave football and particularly Hamilton," he said. The bushy-browed Voyles, who guided his team into the Big Four playoffs in each of the six seasons he coached the club, said he has accepted a job managing the Florida real-estate holdings of football-minded Eric Cradock, a Toronto stockbroker. Voyles is rated by many football observers as one of the

Cougars Share Points After Leading Twice

Victoria Cougars, playing careful, close-checking hockey, took the lead twice at Edmonton last night but wound up with a 2-2 tie with the Flyers in a Western Hockey League game played before 3,200 fans. The point enable the Cougars to move into second place in the Western Division, one point ahead of New Westminster Royals, but the Victoria club dropped six points behind the leading Vancouver Canucks.

It was the third point taken by the Cougars as their first clinched twice on five Cougar penalties trip, which concludes penalties tonight at Calgary. The Island club has a Monday night date at Vancouver, then returns home Tuesday for its seventh game in nine days. Winnipeg Warriors, blanked 3-0, on their first visit to Memorial arena, will provide the opposition. In a game which could have gone either way and in which a draw was a just result, the Cougars scored one lucky goal, then lost the win when the Flyers equalized somewhat flukily with about six minutes left in the third period.

Phil Maloney Sparks Canucks to Victory; Leads Scoring Parade

Phil Maloney, 28-year-old centre obtained by the Canucks from the Quebec Hockey League in time to play in 37 WHL games last season, has turned out to be quite an acquisition for Vancouver Canucks.

Having the best season of his career, Maloney has sparked the Canucks to the Western Division lead this season. Last night at Vancouver he assisted on Canucks first three goals, and scored their fourth as the Vancouver club trimmed Winnipeg Warriors, 5-1, before 4,410 fans.

MAKES BIG PLAY Maloney made the big play of the game. After he had set up Bruce Carmichael in the first period and Carl Kaiser in the second to give Canucks a 2-0 lead, Warriors came back strongly at the start of the third period.

Ed Mazur's 13th goal came at 27 seconds to cut the lead in two and Warriors were pressing for the equalizer with Canuck defenceman Pat Egan in the penalty box. Then Maloney broke away, fed a neat pass to Hugh Currie and Currie got the goal which broke the back of the Winnipeg rally.

Maloney's goal which made it certain was his 20th of the season and his three assists boosted him into the league scoring lead. He has 41 points, two more than Blinki Boyce and Bob Love of New Westminster Royals, who are tied for second place.

REGINA GETS 1,100 At Regina, 1,100 fans turned out to see the Regals blow a 3-0 lead in the last 13 minutes. Two former Quakers, Ray Manson, who scored twice, and George Senick, gave the Regals a 3-0 lead.

Coach Doug Bentley, who has been finding points hard to get this season, started the Quakers on the way back. He scored their first goal at 7:07, then set up Len Haley for the second at 8:21. With only 99 seconds left to play, rookie Dave Gordichuk made it even and overtime failed to break the tie.

VIEWS OF SPORT

By Red Smith

Garry Schmetke was a big, rugged guy who played basketball and the horses and was a good, working professional in both fields. Sometimes he made book at the track in pre-mutuel days, sometimes he bucked the game from the other side, as a bettor. It was in the latter capacity that he passed one winter in Miami, where he and several pals had a house for the season. The house next door, they soon learned, was occupied by a couple who could have been married.

Got along. Garry and his guys never saw the couple but almost every evening when the races were over and they were relaxing with their beer on the back lawn, sounds of raging domestic strife came boiling through the hedge that separated the properties.

One evening the battle next door soared to a new crescendo. "You will, will you?" "Crash! Smack!" "Oh, you beast!" Through the hedge burst a little doll, and she was screaming. Obviously, she had spotted the husky guy next door and was coming for reinforcements. Obviously, too, her knight had fetched her one on the nose, for her white summer frock was flecked with blood. She came charging up to Garry and his friends but before she could get a word out, Garry spoke:

"Who you ridin' for, kid?" he asked casually. "Belair?"

"Perfect Horse"

In those days, as in these, the racing colors of Belair Stud—white, red, polka dots—were so widely familiar that they gave the wisecrack validity. Now those famous silks must be retired, to go the way of Colonel Ed Bradley's white jacket with three narrow green hoops, the white blouse with green cuffs which identified Ranocosa Farm.

Nashua and all his Belair companions are to be sold by executors of the William Woodward estate. There are 62 thoroughbreds in the consignment but actually the number is greater, for in addition to the horses in training and the breeding stock, the yearlings that will come to the races next year and the yearlings that are only a few months old, there are foals of next spring now being carried by the mares—three generations of race horses that have never raced.

To a racing fan, it is sad to see a great stable dissolved. Trustees, though, are responsible to the heirs, and a breeding establishment and racing string are hardly the sort of investment that can be sold. Even if a banker knew his way around in racing, how could he bank officially admit it?

On the last day of racing in New York, Bill McCleary, Nashua's exercise boy, spoke mournfully of the probability that the colt would be sold. "There never was a horse like this," Bill said, "perfect from the day he was foaled. He never took a step, never had a pimple on him, never even bucked a shin like practically all young horses do. I took him three miles in mud this morning and when we came back he jumped as high as that automobile and tried to throw me off. I never saw one like this—and I helped break Man o' War."

In the Red Clay Country

Tom-toms throb triumphantly in the Governor's Mansion in Georgia, and the State Board of Regents has lighted no lamp in the wilderness of ignorance, raised no voice against the rhythm of voodoo worship.

The regents' decision on the question of racial segregation at football games has the surface appearance of compromise, but it is in fact a weaseling surrender to the political witch doctors. Except that they lacked the courage to cancel Georgia Tech's contract in the Sugar Bowl, the regents have knuckled down to Gov. Marvin Griffin and the swamp-rat cult of white supremacy.

Tech may play Pittsburgh Jan. 2 in spite of the unspeakable presence of a Negro on the Pitt squad, but thereafter learning in Georgia is to advance behind the governor's banner of bigotry. Indeed, say the regents with fearless independence, his excellency is to be honored for his "inspiring leadership in protecting inviolate the sacred institutions of our people."

Summit Conference

Crisp, incisive and forethought as always, the men who own major league baseball completed their momentous winter meetings in less time than they had allowed to deal with weighty problems. They accomplished this with characteristic efficiency by doing nothing about the mortal illness of the minors, nothing about the creeping menace of television and radio, nothing about future expansion, nothing about the stuffy bonus rule.

It should not be thought, however, that they took no action at all. They did listen to requests from the players for an increase in minimum wage standards and other small concessions. "You go up there and bat," they told the players, "we'll take care of the money."

Men's '56 Style Trends

Be As Proud of Your Appearance As You Are of Your Loved Ones

The man who desires to have his suit right in style for 1956 will look for a single-breasted coat in two or three button style. Fashioned with a new narrow lapel, narrower shoulders and straighter body lines, it gives that "trim look" which is so new. These suits, styled by leading craftsmen in the London and factory, are tailored in fabrics and colors that are today's style trend leaders—such as fine wools in tweeds with a ragged look most suited to men. There are also English flannel worsteds in all the popular charcoal tones.

To complement these latest clothing styles, Arrow shirts have all the new collar styles, matching or contrasting neckwear with handkerchiefs and socks to match plus a wide variety of cuff links for your double-cuff shirts.

These features and fabrics can be found in a large selection of suits and furnishings at "C.O. Fletcher's Men's Shop" located in the 700 Block Yates Street, where you have the convenience of free parking while you shop, a personal service with skilled help to serve you plus a complete shopping centre to simplify your Christmas buying problems.

You make your own terms, with 26 weeks to pay, and No Cashier Charges at "C.O. Fletcher's Men's Shop" 700 Yates Street.

Fatal Potion

BURNS LAKE, B.C. (CP)—Two loggers, Alfred Thibault and William Larson, died in hospital here Thursday from the effects of drinking antifreeze.

The loggers were employed by Arthur Long at Pailing, west of here. A post mortem will be held.

Shooting Baffles Police

HALIFAX (CP)—The fatal shooting of Michael Resk, 36-year-old Halifax stockkeeper, baffled police Friday.

Detective superintendent James Baker said his men had yet to find a motive. Where the shooting took place also was a mystery. Police said it was murder.

Resk was found dead in the back of his panel truck early Friday morning. The truck was parked in a private driveway in the city's north and about two miles from Resk's home.

Supt. Baker said there were two bullet wounds in the head and one in the chest. Below, fanning from the chest, were three bullet wounds. He said the wounds were made in a haphazard manner, but he was not sure how long Resk was dead before his body was found. There were no foot marks on the truck. Weathering was about 10 to 15 degrees below zero.

The detective chief said the weapon had not been found.

Inspector David Lavers found Resk's truck in a parking lot when he was home. The truck was parked in a lot and was not in use.

The chief driver's name, Mrs. Frances Lavers, had been asked in the house nearby since 10 p.m. She said she heard nothing. Her son, who was home, said he did not see her when he ran in to call police.

Mrs. Resk said her husband left their car and panel truck home at 11:45 p.m. Thursday on a night shift to his fruit and grocery store on Gough street in the north end. He spent the evening watching television with his wife and five children.

Armed Force Demand Conceded to Tunisia

TUNIS, Tunisia (CP)—Tunisia home rule six months ago has stepped up the size of its army to 100,000 men, says a Tunisian newspaper.

The newspaper said the army was being expanded to meet the demands of the Tunisian people for a more powerful defense force. It also mentioned that the army was being equipped with modern weapons.

Vancouver Man Jailed For Swindling Woman

VANCOUVER (CP)—A former bookmaker refused to pay unless she paid him $50,000, a judge said today. The man, 35, was charged with swindling a Florida woman out of $20,000.

Moss was charged following a complaint by Mrs. Lillian Moss, 67, Clearwater, Fla., that she had been hiked out of the money two years ago in a race-horse scheme.

Mrs. Moss said she met Moss in Vancouver and he claimed he was a betting commissioner for an American racing syndicate.

She said she took part in a wager which she was told netted her $150,000, but said Moss

Board Plans To Take Mill to Tree

REGINA (CP)—The Saskatchewan timber board plans to take the mill to the tree instead of taking the tree to the mill.

The timber board has purchased a mobile sawmill which will go into operation this month in the Sturgis area south of Hudson Bay junction.

Board manager M. Karmakoff said Friday the mobile unit will be used to produce poplar and spruce lumber from scattered forest stands which were not harvested because of the high cost of moving logs to a stationary mill.

Ministers Praise Passion Play

Several Victoria clergymen said Rev. Thomas Bailey, rector to applaud left the impression recommended yesterday that "as many people as possible" see the Black Hills Passion Play at the Memorial arena where performances will be held at 2 and 8:15 p.m. today.

"I was profoundly moved," said the audience was asked not to miss it.

REV. THOMAS BAILEY

Mr. Bailey said Rev. Dr. F. E. H. James, president of the Victoria Ministerial Association, said the total effect was "excellent" and urged young people to see the play.

"It is a pictorial presentation worth seeing," he said. "There is no attempt to interpret, it is just pageantry."

Rev. A. W. Golder, retired Anglican minister, said the "reverent attitude of Mr. Bailey impressed me."

He said Mr. Bailey showed intensity and reverence, both of which were needed and "it cannot have been played any other way."

"The play is a sermon in itself," Mr. Golder said.

Mr. Skunk Leaves In His Own Time

ROSEMARY, Alta. (CP) — A smelly situation brought a battle of wits and the skunk won out over a group of humans.

The skunk, a big fellow with a powerful back, fell into the pit so that the skunk could leave of its own volition. The skunk left during the night leaving only the pungent reminder of his visit.

The pit later was automatically desodorized by scrubbing the back pit with strong coffee.

Fear of Culture Scored by Star

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Thomas Mitchell, journeyman actor and master of everything from television to theatre, has found a new medium for his powerful voice.

Mitchell's first efforts are Plato's Apology and Credo. They occupy three records each of which takes an hour to play or read.

"I didn't know what I was doing," Mitchell said happily. "I haven't enjoyed myself so much since the 20s."

A collector of fine art literature, Mitchell is dedicated to giving the long hours an up-to-date crew.

"Maybe my recordings will help to break down the tendency to put the classics on a pedestal," he said.

He pointed to several shelves of well-read volumes.

"The greatness buried in those books, the story of So-and-so, for instance, would be as dramatic on the stage or screen as anything we've ever done. But the very names of the ancients frighten most men out of their wits."

Mussolini Aide Gets Reburial

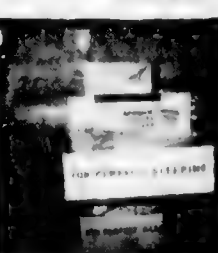

ROME (AP) — The body of Achille Starace, secretary of the Fascist party, which was hung by the heels along with that of Mussolini at a Milan service station in 1945, was buried in the St. Nicola Salentino cemetery here today.

The body was brought from Milan where it had been placed along with Mussolini in a pottery field.

Police Track Down All Hold-Up Leads

Victoria and Oak Bay police forces last night were checking out all reports in connection with two hold-ups that netted only $10 Thursday night.

No suspects had been questioned by either department and leads to capture of the gunman appeared slim, police said.

Searches yielded no clues in the $10 hold-up at Oak Bay grocery store, 1400 Highway 10, about 7 p.m. Thursday, and the other hold-up at about 8 p.m. at Oak Bay theatre cashier.

Police believe it is possible the same person was involved in both incidents, despite the fact the stores are separated by a distance of about 10 miles.

The gunman in each case placed a white handkerchief over his face. He is described as five feet 10 inches tall, with dark hair.

Police do not believe the gunman is the same person who was involved in a previous robbery which netted more than $1000.

Apples Improved Through the Years

Improvement of the apple season of ripening undoubtedly through selection of the best types of wild seedlings, goes back to the beginning of history. Methods of budding and grafting from known varieties more than 2,000 years ago.

Today, in the third century B.C., knew seven different apple varieties. Pliny, in the first century, was discovered near Pisa, Italy, in 1881, then being known as the Hawkeye. A farmer, Jesse Hlatt, found a short limb bearing unusual fruit. The tree was purchased in 1893 by C. M. Stark and became the progenitor of the Delicious line.

Apples are on the market all year, with peak October through January. When buying apples here is the manner in which they are graded.

Extra fancy—apples of one variety which are mature hand picked, clean, smooth, well formed, sound and sized; free from insect larva, disease skin made of Indian villages with broken at the stem; hall marks, apple and peach orchards. All sunscald, spray burn, drought, the Indian orchards consisted of seedling trees. Since the apple does not come true from seed, wide variations in size, color and quality of fruit and storage; properly packed.

Here is a trio of Canadian shoes to pack in your suitcase for that perfect weekend holiday. Lower left, a low-cut suede pump in navy blue with trim around the vamp in a lighter shade of blue calf with metallic finish. This shoe has the high tapered heel, a top fashion note this season. Centre, a smart little pump on a medium high heel, in a combination of suede and bronze tone calf, with tailored bow at throat of vamp. Right, a wonderful "dress up" shoe to add glamour to afternoon or "after five" dresses. Pointing up the "bare" look, this open pump is of suede with overlays of braid across the vamp and back of shoe.

From these top requirements, they are graded down to fancy and commercial or "C" variety.

Chinese Mother-in-Law Still Powerful Force

By FREDERICK COLEMAN
SINGAPORE (Reuters) — Western brides often face with apprehension on arriving a mother-in-law have little to complain about by Chinese standards.

The first thing that a Chinese girl asks, when congratulating a friend on her engagement, is a whispered: "Is there a mother-in-law?" Far, next to the husband, and sometimes before him, the most important person in a Chinese bride's life is her spouse's mother. Economy, filial piety and a devotion to pleasing the old lady are accepted as undeniable.

'Progress' Made In Cayuga Probe

Naval investigators are "making some progress" in their inquiry into the theft of $14,500 from HMCS Cayuga last April, Vice-Admiral E. R. Mainguy said in Victoria yesterday.

"The fire is not closed," he said in an interview during his final inspection tour as chief of staff before being on to his new post as commander of the Pacific Command, RCN, in Halifax.

Accompanying Admiral Mainguy on the inspection tour is Rear Admiral R. E. S. Bidwell, Flag Officer, Atlantic Coast, who was commander of the barracks at HMCS Naden in 1951.

The naval chief said consideration is being given to the disposition of the aircraft carrier HMCS Magnificent, now on loan from the Royal Navy. It may be kept in Canadian waters after the new carrier, Bonaventure, is commissioned in late October of 1956.

SUGAR RAY ROBINSON

They Do Come Back!

Sugar Ray Sobs Heart Out After Licking Olson, Experts

CHICAGO (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson exploded a terrific barrage topped by a vicious right uppercut to knock out champion Bobo Olson in 2:51 of the second round in a middleweight title bout at the Chicago Stadium Friday night.

Sugar Ray Robinson, again the middleweight king, was led into his dressing room after his smashing knockout over Bobo Olson Friday night with tears streaming down his face. He couldn't speak. One veteran ringman said:

"He looks more like after he exhausted himself against Joey Maxim than like a guy who just won the title."

Big George Gainsford, who always has been closest to Robinson since his start in the ring, finally gathered the Harlem dandy to him like a mother hen and elbowed through the mob of reporters to a table. There, Robinson sat down facing the audience.

He didn't speak for nearly five minutes as Gainsford and others hid him from view, wiping his face, patting his back and getting him off the emotional jag.

Then the new 160-pound king spoke quietly over a public address microphone.

"I had to cry," he said. "I just couldn't believe it was all over. This comeback has been a ghost of a thing with me ever since Tiger Jones licked me here in Chicago Stadium nearly a year ago."

"You never think you have a champion licked until it is all over. I didn't think I had beaten him until he was counted out."

"I'm not sure what punch did the damage. I hit him once and he was wobbly and I kept hitting him—and down he went."

Mental Examination

Son Pleads Insanity In Plane-Bomb Case

DENVER (UP)—John Gilbert Graham, 23, pleaded innocent by reason of insanity Friday to the charge that he murdered his mother by time-bombing the airliner in which 44 persons were killed.

District Judge Edward J. Keating

ordered the young defendant to the Colorado Psychopathic hospital in Denver for 30 days' observation and continued the case until Jan. 9, when he will hear the hospital report. Keating said he expected to set a date for the sanity trial after the Jan. 9 report.

Graham will stand trial for murder if the sanity trial discloses he was sane at the time of the alleged murder.

Graham's mother, Mrs. Daisie King, died when the United-Air Lines plane exploded and crashed near Longmont, Colo., Nov. 1. Everyone aboard was killed.

In a confession to the FBI, which he later denied, Graham said he took out insurance on his mother shortly before the plane took off from Denver for Portland, Ore.

Totally Untrained

Murdered Constable Might Still Be Alive

VANCOUVER (BUP)—Brig. W. C. Murphy, recently appointed to the three-man Vancouver police commission, levelled a blistering attack yesterday at the lack of training for city police officers.

The scathing denunciation, in which Murphy termed lack of training a "scandal," came in the wake of the murder Wednesday night of Constable Gordon Sinclair. The brigadier told a police commission meeting Friday that Sinclair was one of a number of men on the force who had not received "one single day" of training. If Sinclair had been trained, he said, he might still be alive.

Murphy, who was appointed only recently to fill a vacancy on the commission, said he was "shocked and appalled" at the limited amount of training available for Vancouver policemen. "IT IS AMAZING"

"It is amazing that the force has done the job it has," he said.

Only $500 was spent on training this year, Murphy said. There were no quarters for the work, there is little equipment and few instructors, he said. Only four per cent of the 750-man force has had advanced training for senior jobs, and 24 per cent of the uniformed men have had no training at all.

The brigadier attached no blame to other members of the commission. He observed that none has had long army experience similar to his.

"We must find the money for training," he said. "The city council will be asked for more than $300 next year."

The commission also decided to ask the city council to post a $5,000 reward for information leading to the conviction of the killer of Sinclair, who was shot as he investigated a report of prowlers. This would be in addition to a reward of $1,000 already offered personally by Mayor Fred Hume.

OFFERED POST

In other developments, RCMP Superintendent George J. Archer said he had been offered the post of temporary chief of the Vancouver force and would accept if his superiors in Ottawa approve.

"Gentlemen, family troubles are not conducive to fighting. You got to feel like fighting to fight a good fight."

Flaherty was referring to Olson's marital difficulties. He added: "We want to straighten out his family troubles before we think about fighting again."

Bobo, however, was of different opinion. "I'll fight him again," vowed the man who had just lost to Robinson for a third straight time.

"He was much faster than I expected. Those combinations stunned me, they were so fast, and I got careless. The first round went just like I wanted it to. He didn't hurt me at all then. But that second round..."

Annacis Claim Settled

VANCOUVER (CPI)—A two-year court battle ended here Thursday when $30,000 was accepted for the 45-acre Annacis island farm of Mrs. Hilda Falk, 87.

Gilbert J. Hardman of Eagle Harbor obtained an option on the estate of the Duke of Westminster which is developing Annacis island as an industrial estate.

Mrs. Falk's two daughters contended their mother was not mentally competent to give the option and claimed the property was worth much more.

The Court of Appeal upheld a B.C. Supreme Court decision that $30,000 was more than fair and the solicitor for the Falk family Thursday abandoned plans to go to the Supreme Court of Canada.

Tram-Fare Boost Began It

Mass Arrests of Hoodlums Follow Ugly Montreal Riots

MONTREAL — A student demonstration over increased tram fares boiled into a series of ugly riots Friday night resulting in mass arrests of roaming hoodlums.

Late last night flying squads of police were still fighting two outbreaks, one in the west end of the city near the scene of last March's vicious riot over the suspension of Maurice (Rocket) Richard. The other outbreak was in the east end.

The demonstration, planned merely as a student parade of increased bus and tram fares, was turned into a nightmare of destruction and vandalism by "hoodlums, thugs and vandals," police said, after 70 had been arrested.

MAYOR ACTS

Mayor Jean Drapeau issued a proclamation banning all demonstrations or processions "in the public interest."

He said last night it was "extremely regrettable" that "subversive elements" and "inciters of trouble" had infiltrated into the student demonstrators.

The Montreal Transportation Commission ordered all street cars and buses pulled out of service when five persons were reported injured and buses and street cars had been damaged.

Police said at least 70 persons had been arrested and "they're still coming in car loads."

Mobs were using street signs to smash windows in the buses and in at least one case tried to set fire to street cars.

University students, who started the demonstration as a protest of the increase in tram fares from three for 30 cents to two for 25 cents, had long gone home, police said.

Five persons were reported injured and taken to St. Luke's hospital.

Twelve of the hoodlums ganged up on two policemen in a radio car at the corner of Guy and Sherbrooke streets in the west end.

The constables fought them off and captured three juveniles. Another policeman suffered a broken leg in the scuffle.

A police car was turned over by a band of thugs, while others roamed the city in small groups smashing windows, throwing rocks and then vanishing before police arrived.

Some of those arrested tried to fight their way out of the police station and had to be controlled by police. Charges ranged from disturbing the peace to damaging property, assaulting police officers and resisting arrest.

Labor Eyes Voters

NEW YORK (UP)—George Meany, president of the new 16,000,000-member AFL-CIO, said Friday that if labor cannot make its voice heard through the two major parties it will be forced to create "a third political party."

Meany told the National Association of Manufacturers that what labor wanted most was "understanding."

Indian Raps Change

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CPI)—The character of Indian children is being destroyed by "white" boarding schools in northern Saskatchewan, says Cree chief Simon Linklater of Pelican Narrows.

En route to an Ottawa conference of Indian chiefs and Indian affairs officials, he said "ways of Indian people who first lived in the North are being changed by the boarding schools provided by federal and provincial governments."

"In the schools to which the Indian fathers and mothers send their children the whites have all the say and we have none," he said in an interview.

Municipal Elections

Saanich, Esquimalt, Oak Bay Make Their Decisions Today

More than 28,500 voters are eligible to cast ballots between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. today in municipal elections in Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt, and in the rural municipality of Central Saanich.

Saanich voters, alone, have a good chance of outdoing their Victoria counterparts. In Thursday's city elections, 9,075 ballots were cast. A 50 per cent turnout of Saanich's 18,573 registered voters would exceed that number.

The Saanich voters will choose a reeve from three candidates: Joseph Casey, Arthur Ash and George Clayton.

They will choose three councillors for two-year terms from 10 candidates: Leslie Passmore, S. W. Brock, Ronald MacHardy, Grant, Stanley Eden, T. J. O'Neill, David Wright, J. Pat Conroy, C. H. MacMillan, James Ronald Grant, and Thomas Alexander.

The Saanich voters will also elect one councillor for a one-year term. Candidates are Ainslie Worthington, R. W. Dawson and Harold Todd.

Stanley Eden, Lionel Speller and W. T. Lightfoot are seeking the single vacant police commission seat.

Ratepayers will also vote on a $220,000 waterworks by-law for installing additional pipes. Saanich voters may vote at whichever of 13 polling stations is most convenient (but they have been warned of the heavy penalty for voting or attempting to vote at more than one).

The stations are at Cedar Hill school, Lansdowne Junior High school, Tolmie school, Cloverdale school, Gordon Head school, Cadboro Bay Scout hall, Marigold Scout hall, 3890 Douglas, Royal Oak High school, McMoran's pavilion, Prospect Lake school, Tillicum school and St. Martin's-in-the-Fields hall.

In Oak Bay, where 6,812 voters are registered, three councillors will be chosen from a list of six: J. V. Johnson, George Murdoch, Fred W. Hawes, F. A. Robinson, Albert de Mezey and Kenneth Oliver.

W. C. Gelling and Kenneth Murphy are seeking the one school board seat, and George Murdoch, Leonard Parkin and James W. Gray the one police commission seat.

Esquimalt's 3,175 registered voters will choose between two candidates for reevehip, Cmdr. A. C. Wurtele and Mag. A. L. Thomas.

They will choose three councillors from a field of six: George F. Argyle, Charles Arthur Fields, Walter Holder, Frederick Vincent Rush, Alexander Speirs and William Walker.

Central Saanich ratepayers also go to the polls today to elect two councillors.

Opinion of electors will also be sought on two referendums, one on whether the municipality should continue to subscribe to the Victoria Public Library bookmobile service, and the other on whether new road construction should be financed through general revenue or by local improvement.

Voting will be conducted at the municipal hall, Brentwood school and Keating Institute hall from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

SUGAR RAY ROBINSON

They Do Come Back!

Sugar Ray Sobs Heart Out After Licking Olson, Experts

CHICAGO (AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson exploded a terrific barrage topped by a vicious right uppercut to knock out champion Bobo Olson in 2:31 of the second round in a middleweight title bout at the Chicago Stadium Friday night.

When Olson tried to slug it out with Robinson, Sugar Ray unleashed a blinding series of combinations and with a terrific right uppercut knocked Olson flat on his back for a 10 count.

Thus the 35-year-old Robinson disproved the theory that they never come back by winning the 160-pound title for the third time. Olson, a 3-1 favorite, was paralyzed as much by Robinson's blockbusting knockout punch as he was when light heavyweight champion Archie Moore knocked him out in the third round of a bout last summer.

Sugar Ray Robinson, again the middleweight king, was led into his dressing room after his smashing knockout over Bobo Olson Friday night with tears streaming down his face. He couldn't speak. One veteran ringman said:

"He looks more like after he exhausted himself against Joey Maxim than like a guy who just won the title."

Big George Gainsford, who always has been closest to Robinson since his start in the ring, finally gathered the Harlem dandy to him like a mother hen and elbowed through the mob of reporters to a table. There, Robinson sat down facing the audience.

He didn't speak for nearly five minutes as Gainsford and others hid him from view, wiping his face, patting his back and getting him off the emotional jag.

Then the new 160-pound king spoke quietly over a public address microphone. "I had to cry," he said. "I just couldn't believe it was all over. This comeback has been a ghost of a thing with me ever since Tiger Jones licked me here in Chicago Stadium nearly a year ago."

"You never think you have a champion licked until it is all over. I didn't think I had beaten him until he was counted out. . . . I'm not sure what punch did the damage. I hit him once and he was wobbly and I kept hitting him—and down he went."

A stunned, bewildered Bobo Olson sat in his dressing room Friday night after he had lost his middleweight title to Ray Robinson by a second round knockout.

"So fast, so fast," muttered Olson. "It was his fast combinations and I got careless. It was too fast, I don't know, maybe the ref counted too fast. Did he?"

"Did I try to get up?" he asked. Someone assured Bobo he made a try at the count of eight and then rolled over.

"I did," asked the unbelieving Olson. "Then in a reply to his own question, he said:

"I don't know."

Olson's manager, Sid Flaherty stepped in:

"Gentlemen, family troubles are not conducive to fighting. You got to feel like fighting to fight a good fight."

Flaherty was referring to Olson's marital difficulties. He added: "We want to straighten out his family troubles before we think about fighting again."

Bobo, however, was of different opinion. "I'll fight him again," vowed the man who had just lost to Robinson for a third straight time.

"He was much faster than I expected. Those combinations stunned me, they were so fast, and I got careless. The first round went just like I wanted it to. He didn't hurt me at all then. But that second round . . ."

New City Air Link May Span Nation

Pacific Western Airways' triangle service between Victoria and Vancouver, by way of Nanaimo, will probably be the first link of a new transcontinental chain.

"That's our hope," Russell Baker, president of the company, told The Daily Colonist last night.

Base of the new operation probably will be at Patricia Bay airport.

"We recently signed up with the provincial government to take over a hangar at Patricia Bay," said Mr. Baker. He explained his company for many years has been doing B.C. government work, forest patrols, and map-making.

"Now we will be in a position to service government planes. We are going to have a large staff at Patricia Bay."

"We shall have to build adequate waiting rooms and other facilities."

NEW AIRCRAFT

Last night Mr. Baker was negotiating for two new DC-3 aircraft to shuttle on the Victoria-Vancouver route seven days a week.

Son Pleads Insanity In Plane-Bomb Case

DENVER (UP)—John Gilbert Graham, 23, pleaded innocent by reason of insanity Friday to the charge that he murdered his mother by time-bombing the airliner in which 44 persons were killed. District Judge Edward J. Keatinge ordered the young defendant to the Colorado Psychopathic hospital in King, died when the United Air Denver for 30 days' observation and Lines plane exploded and crashed continued the case until Jan. 9, near Longmont, Colo., Nov. 1, when he will hear the hospital report.

Keatinge said he expected to set a date for the sanity trial after the Jan. 9 report.

Graham will stand trial for murder if the sanity trial discloses he was sane at the time of the alleged murder.

MONTREAL — A student demonstration over increased tram fares boiled into a series of ugly riots Friday night resulting in mass arrests of roaming hoodlums.

Shortage Worsens

"No eggs today" signs greeted housewives at many groceries in the area again yesterday as one of the worst egg shortages in the last 25 years cut supplies. Feed firm officials and whole-salers blamed the shortage on two things—the November cold spell, during which the hens froze up on their duties, and the fact that more hens were sold for broiling, thus cutting the laying stock.

Annacis Claim Settled

VANCOUVER (CP)—A two-year

court battle ended here Thursday when $30,000 was accepted for the 45-acre Annacis island farm of Mrs. Hilda Falk, 87.

Gilbert J. Hardman of Eagle Harbor obtained an option on the farm 2½ years ago.

He was acting as representative of the estate of the Duke of Westminster which is developing Annacis island as an industrial estate.

Mrs. Falk's two daughters contended their mother was not mentally competent to give the option and claimed the property was worth much more.

The Court of Appeal upheld a B.C. Supreme Court decision that $30,000 was more than fair and understood that Congressman the solicitor for the Falk family Roosevelt does not speak for Thursday abandoned plans to go the Democratic party, but only to the Supreme Court of Canada, for himself.
